Dezone Eng.Co. established in Iran in 1992, is one of the recognized companies specializing in process design, supply, construction and operation of water & wastewater treatment works.With the ability to execute turnkey projects on an international basis, Dezone provides practical and optional answers to industrial, commercial and municipal applications.Having a dedicated staff of motivated engineers, designers and technicians, makes Dezone the success that is today. A closely knit professional team executes every projects to enable quick decisions to be made at every stage of the project. You can trust us to not only optimize your existing treatment processes but to develop new innovations to lower your cost and protect your investment. Dezone is ready to serve you and to solve your problems in water and wastewater treatment works.