Dezone Provides the best available solution to meet the wastewater treatment and reuse requirement of most industries with particular emphasis on automobile, food and beverage, chemical and petro chemical, textile, dairy, slaughter house and rubber industries.

Dezone services include wastewater analysis, pilot studies to confirm most effective and cost efficient treatment, process and detailed design, assisting the client in the environmental protection bureau approval process, manufacturing and supplying the required components, commissioning and plant operation.