Dezone offers ongoing operation and maintenance service contracts to ensure your treatment plant or pump station is maintained at optimum operating performance.

Available services include:

- Plant operation and process optimization to achieve highest quality products and reduction in energy, chemicals and consumables.
- Supply of spare parts and repair or replacement of equipment.
- Scheduled and preventive maintenance.
- Inspection and trouble shooting.
- Development of operation and maintenance manuals and records sheets.
- Following of safety regulations and standards.