Over the past years, Dezone have constructed a number of turnkey water treatment plants. These projects range from very small plants such as a water softener, filter or chemical feeding unit for small communities or industries, to large municipal and industrial plants.